SCINTILLATIONS.

An Interesting Jumble Of News And Comment.

Rudyard Kipling is going to South Africa to gather literary material.

Admiral Dewey and wife will attend the Mardi Gras Carnival at New Orleans.

Secretary Root reports that there are 10,343,150 men available for military duty in this country.

Mrs. Lincoln Harris, of Chicago, took rough on rats because her husband objected to her attending dances.

A poll of both houses of Congress shows that the Nicaragua Canal Bill will pass both houses by overwhelming majorities.

It is possible that the reward for the arrest and conviction of the assassin of Hon. Wm. Goebel will aggregate over sixty thousand dollars. The Legislature will probably appropriate fifty thousand dollars. A number of well-known detectives, including Wm. Pinkerton, of Chicago, are in Frankfort working on the case, and it is likely that arrests will be made in a few days.

Meetings were held this week by citizens at Danville, Springfield, Fulton, Elizabethtown, Cloverport, Williams-town, Corinth, Jackson, Eldysville, Lawrenceburg, Sebree, Lexington, Tompkinsville, Brownsville, Campbellsville, Bardstown, Cadiz, Gradyville and other places, by citizens to pass resolutions of respect to Gov. Goebel.

THEATRICAL AND OTHERWISE.

News and Comment of Stage Matters and Other Gossip.

Paul Leicester Ford's latest novel "Janice Meredith" is to be dramatized.

The next attraction at the Grand will be "Two Merry Tramps," which come on the 17th.

Mrs. Harriet Glascock Hall, who is well known here, will direct a society minstrel show to be given to-night at Lancaster. It is called "The Black Bird Show."

Postmaster Bosley has been kicking himself since Tuesday on account of Paderewski. He had two two-dollar seats for the recital but forgot that it was to occur in the afternoon and failed to go down to Cincinnati on the morning train, and thus missed it. He is holding the tickets as a Paderewski souvenir.

Manager Charles Scott has some excellent attractions in store for the patrons of the Lexington opera house. "Jack and the Beanstalk" comes on February 16th and 17th, and after that Joseph Jefferson, Richard Mansfield, "The Children of The Ghetto," "At The White Horse Tavern," and others. "The Christian" comes for a matinee and night performance on March 3rd. Yesterday Mr. Scott booked Sir Henry Irving for December 5th, 1900.

Hints For Valentine Parties.

INVITATIONS for valentine parties will be upon heart shaped cards, and each guest may be asked to submit an original valentine, or, if skillful with pen or pencil, improvise one at the party. Cuts from illustrated prints or even faded flowers may be mounted and decorated with borders of black and white.

A valentine post box may be arranged in the hall, into which each guest may drop his valentine, addressed to its intended recipient. These will be delivered throughout the party by two boys, who represent special delivery messengers.

A postoffice may be made by hanging two Nottingham lace curtains in a doorway. Draw them back on each side at the center, and decorate them with paper flowers and bright pictures, in imitation of a lace paper valentine. A table draped in white should be placed directly behind the curtains, and it would be very well to have a bookcase placed a little farther back, so that the postmistress may take letters down from pigeonholes. Every little while the postmistress can hang out a card to this effect: "Uncalled for letter here addressed to Tom Brown. Five cents due." And before long it is probable Tom will claim it.

Geo. Barbee, Mondota, Va., says: "Nothing did me so much good as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. One dose relieved me, a few bottles cured me." It digests what you eat and always cures dyspepsia. W. T. Brooks.

L. T. Travis, Agent Southern R. R. Selma, Ga., writes, "I cannot say too much in praise of One Minute Cough Cure. In my case it worked like a charm." The only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, and all throat troubles. W. T. Brooks.

The physicians shall furnish to me as Judge of said County, a true list, under oath, of the persons vaccinated by them, with the charges thereof, no to exceed twenty-five cents for each successful vaccination. All cities and towns in the county having Councilmen or Trustees do not come under this notice, as it is especially their duty to make proper provisions under Sec. 4611 of Kentucky Statutes. Every good citizen is interested in observing and assisting in the enforcement of this notice. I hope no further steps will become necessary. I am, respectfully,
